

SPEAK HARP AND WORLD LOUNGE

Andrea Pozzoli, composer, performer, artistic producer, sound designer, actually founder of WALKING TREES Human Eco Rock Opera, plays an electric celtic harp custom made by Paolo Maria Canetta.

The more experimental and eclectic harpist is back with a new spellbinding project after his performances during some of the most appealing events all over Europe. Because of his skills in composing and "soundshaping" he worked beside some of the most famous italian bands and songwriters such as Francesco de Gregori, Lucio Dalla, I Nomadi, Massimo Bubola, Celtas Cortos, Arona n'Djaye (Peter Gabriel), Taffa Cissé, Tanya Saw (Zap Mama), Secouba Bambino Djabaté, Bruno Genero, Gavin Harrison, Orchestra Sinfonica Italiana (Pavarotti and Friends).

He composed music for many successful theatre plays, ballets, contemporary art exhibits.

"SPEAK"

"SPEAK" is a 45 minutes performance previously unreleased, very emotional and evocative...combining voices from all over the world, lounge music and the warm and charming sound of his electric "luminescent" harp.
